Jail Programming and Job Readiness Workgroup

Meeting Agenda
January 17, 2017
1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office
Headquarters Building – Executive Conference Room
4434 Calle Real
Santa Barbara, CA

I. Call to Order and Introductions – Chief Deputy Vincent Wasilewski

II. Sub-Committee Overview – Chief Deputy Vincent Wasilewski

A review of the pertinent sections of Dr. Austin's report with a brief description of the purpose of the sub-committee. Exercise to identify the goals and objectives the sub-committee will seek to attain during subsequent meetings.

III. In-House Jail Program for All AB109 Inmates – Programs Supervisor Katie Ward

Brief overview of current Sheriff's Treatment Program (STP) and obstacles that need to be overcome in order to expand the program.

There is broad agreement that there is insufficient programming available to people who are spending extended periods of time in the jail. This applies to both AB 109 designated inmates and non-AB 109 inmates (both pretrial and sentenced).

IV. Job Readiness, Residential, and Transportation Services – Chief Deputy Vincent Wasilewski

A round table discussion regarding what programs and community services we will need to tap into in order to enhance employment opportunities, make available stable residency, and reliable transportation for the recently released inmate.

There are some, but in our view, insufficient basic services being made available to meet the needs of the AB 109 population. These are in the areas of securing and maintaining employment, stable residency, and transportation. We recognized that this can be a very difficult population to meet such needs, but additional resources in these three key areas should be funded.

V. Public Comment – All

Three (3) minutes per commentator, not to exceed a total of fifteen (15) minutes.
