   Assembly Bill (AB) 1913, the Schiff-Cardenas Crime Prevention Act of 2000 (Chapter 353), created the Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) program. The JJCPA provides a stable funding source for local juvenile justice programs aimed at curbing crime and delinquency among at-risk youth. Counties are required to complete and annually update a Comprehensive Multi-Agency Juvenile Justice Plan (CMJJP) describing objectives and strategies for working with this population.
   a. Receive presentation from Probation regarding preparation of the 2020-21 CMJJP, including demographic information, data/information sharing, and assessment of existing services.

6. Reimagining Juvenile Justice (RJJ) Project Coordination – Holly Benton
   RJJ is an innovative staff development initiative sponsored by the Annie E. Casey Foundation (AECF). The curriculum builds capacity for our multi-agency cohort to support, divert and redirect youth to appropriate and fair juvenile justice options, including those requiring a high degree of cross-systems collaboration. The initiative teaches principles of positive youth development (PYD), a strength-based, youth-led, adult-guided approach based around developmental assets. Santa Barbara County’s RJJ cohort has completed the curriculum and as the culmination of their efforts, developed recommendations for county leadership regarding transforming policy and practice in juvenile justice.
   a. Review the recommendations provided by the RJJ cohort and any associated priorities provided by the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (JJCC); discuss the formation of workgroups to address strategies and recommendations.
