IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Based on guidance from the California Department of Public Health and the California Governor's Stay at Home Executive Order N-33-20 issued on March 19, 2020 to protect the health and well-being of all Californian's and to establish consistency across the state in order to slow the spread of COVID-19, the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council Workgroup (JJCCW) meeting will not provide in-person participation.

We have established alternative methods of participation in the JJCCW meetings, pursuant to the California Governor's Executive Order N-29-20, which states:

- Providing an opportunity to “observe and address” telephonically or otherwise electronically, alone, meets the requirement; and
- Removing the former requirement from Executive Order N-25-20 of having “at least one publicly accessible” location from which the public may observe and offer comment. Executive Order N-29-20 now states expressly, “Such a body need not make available any physical location from which members of the public may observe the meeting and offer public comment.”

The following alternative methods of participation are available to the public. If you wish to make a general public comment or to comment on a specific agenda item, the following methods are available:

- Distribution to the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council Workgroup - Submit your comment via email by 5:00 pm the Wednesday prior to the JJCCW meeting. Please submit your comment to medavis@co.santa-barbara.ca.us your comment will be placed into the record and distributed appropriately.
- Participation via Zoom

4. Juvenile Justice Realignment – DCPO Kimberly Shean

Senate Bill (SB) 823, chaptered by the California State Legislature on September 30, 2020, prohibits the commitment of additional youth to the DJJ effective July 1, 2021. The first year Juvenile Justice Realignment Plan was submitted to the County Board of Supervisors, on May 18, 2021. The Second Year Juvenile Justice Realignment Plan is due to the Office of Youth and Community Restoration (OYCR) by January 1, 2022.

- Update on the development of the Fiscal Year (FY) 2021-22 Juvenile Justice Realignment draft plan.

5. Community Engagement – DCPO Shawn Small

Including public involvement in program development is essential to better understanding the community's needs and desires. Creating constructive relationships and communication between the community and government will likely lead to greater equity, increased sustainability, better outcomes, and programming that are better received and supported by the public.

- Continued discussion on strategies to improve community engagement and participation in projects and program development.

6. Youth Voice – DCPO Shawn Small

As part of the Annie E. Casey Re-Imagining Juvenile Justice initiative, engaging authentic youth voice and leadership was one of the major components in making a paradigm shift from traditional thinking to a more positive youth development-centered mindset and a cross-systems approach. Including the perspective and suggestion of current and former system involved youth will create a better understanding of how to empower youth to participate in their growth plans and take ownership of the outcomes they hope to achieve.

- Continued discussion on strategies to identify youth participants, solicit and encourage participation in county advisory groups.

7. Work Plan for the Comprehensive Multi-Agency Juvenile Justice Plan (CMJJP) – DCPO
Shawn Small

Assembly Bill (AB) 1913, the Schiff-Cardenas Crime Prevention Act of 2000 (Chapter 353), created the Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) program. The JJCPA provides a stable funding source for local juvenile justice programs aimed at curbing crime and delinquency among at-risk youth. Counties are required to complete and annually update a Comprehensive Multi-Agency Juvenile Justice Plan (CMJJP) describing objectives and strategies for working with this population.

- Discuss alternative meeting times for improved community engagement involving the development of the upcoming FY 2022-23 CMJJP.
